If the young pigs are weak boned and break down on the way to market or before, it is pretty good evidence that the ration given them has not had enough bone forming material in it. This is just as necessary as the fat and flesh forming elements and may be provided by feeding the pigs wood or cob charcoal and ashes during the growing period.

It is estimated that 300,000 people in all registered for the land drawings held in Spokane, Billings and Coeur d'Alene. If each person on the average spent $20 in car fare and hotel bills to make the trip to one of the three places the process of registering alone cost in the aggregate $6,000,000. This is a good round sum and would have bought 60,000 acres of land at $100 per acre.

GOT CHICKENS, THIEF ESCAPED

Lower End Residents Suffer from Depredations of Wholesale Chicken Thief who Sold Fowls in Town. Chased by Horsemen.

Excelling the far famed Ambrose Dittenhafer as a despoiler of Adams County chicken roosts a man, giving his name as Sanford and trading as the High Street Produce Company of Hanover, is now a fugitive from Adams County officials while his latest plunder, a half hundred hens and roosters, and his horse and wagon are in the keeping of the local authorities. The man himself narrowly escaped capture on Friday morning.

It is said that Sanford, who claims New York as his home, has been carrying on a regular wholesale chicken trade. He has brought large quantities of the fowls to Gettysburg and has had no trouble disposing of them to local wholesale chicken and produce dealers. He gathered his stock at night it is said, and worked rapidly, from fifty to a hundred fowls a night being his average. Other counties are said to have been visited recently and when business became dull or conditions uncomfortable he chose Adams County as the scene of operations.

Hearing that he was in their neighborhood E. J. Sponseller, of Mount Pleasant township, determined to watch for the man. With a man who works on the farm, Allen Straley, he kept close watch for any sign of the chicken thief and early Friday morning they were rewarded when the man came along in his covered wagon. Donning a few clothes they mounted horses and hurried after him, chasing him to Two Taverns and from there on towards Taneytown. Finally the pursuers drew up on him at the farm of David Rohrbaugh and Sanford leaped from his wagon into some bushes, making good his escape. The wagon and contents were turned over to Constable Wilson who is now on the look out for the man.

The wagon is an old covered dayton with no side curtains. It was drawn by a dark gray mare which is some what sore in front. Forty nine chickens were in the wagon, that being the extent of the night's operations. The instrument with which he caught the fowls was also recovered. The man himself is described as being about 45 years old, 5 feet 9 inches in height has a sandy mustache mixed with gray and when last seen wore a light slouch hat and a light suit. Mr. Wilson will appreciate any information telephoned to his home concerning the man.

SHIREY--PLANK

Miss Edith R. Plank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Jare Plank, of near Knoxlyn, and John E. Shirey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Shirey, of Birdsboro, were united in marriage at the home of Rev. Dr. A. R. Steck in York on Wednesday evening. Dr. Steck was the early pastor of the bride. The wedding was very quiet owing to the serious illness of the groom's father.

The bride was gowned in a beautiful frock of white satin messaline trimmed with princess lace over white silk, wore a veil and carried bride's roses. A diamond pin, the gift of the groom, was the only jewelry worn. She was attended by her sister, Miss Nellie Plank who wore a gown of cream pongee trimmed with duchesse lace. The ring ceremony was used.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirey have left on an extended wedding trip to Reading, Washington and Southern points. Her traveling gown was of blue chiffon broadcloth.

They will be at home in Birdsboro after November first.

TOPTONITES VISIT TOWN

Thousands of Residents of Berks County Spend the Day in Gettysburg and on the Battlefield. Many Excursions.

The Berks Countians came to Gettysburg by the thousands today in their annual excursion and the town and battlefield were literally overrun by the typical Pennsylvania Germans from Kutztown, Reading, Allentown and numerous other sections of Berks and adjoining counties.

"Topton Day" as this annual event has come to be known in Gettysburg never had more favorable weather conditions than this year. For many years it was a common superstition that the excursion run for the benefit of the Topton Orphan School brought rain with it but this year was certainly an exception to the rule.

Gettysburg people were prepared for the visitors. Between six and seven o'clock this morning the teams had begun to line up in front of the Reading station and before nine o'clock there was a long line which steadily increased until the first train came in.

Eating stands and fairs were on all sides and everybody did a big business, the Berks countians usually spending all the money they bring along.

One train after another poured its hundreds into the town and, when all were in, 3968 were tallied up as Gettysburg visitors for the day. The Toptonites put in the day as usual, riding or walking over the battlefield and seemed to be having a good time in their own peculiar way.

There was no special incident to mark either their trip here or their visit in Gettysburg and the day passed without anything unusual being reported.

PITTSBURG WINS THE FIRST GAME

After Early Innings Detroit Was Outclassed.

THE SCORE WAS 4 TO 1

Manager Clarke's Home Run Drive Appeared to Take the Heart Out of the Tigers—Leach's Sensational Catch Saved Game For Pirates.

Pittsburg, Oct. 9.—Pittsburg, the National League champions, won the first game of the world's championship series by the score of 4 to 1 at Forbes Field. After the early innings Detroit was outclassed in every department.

FRED CLARKE, Manager of the Pittsburgh Club.

of the game, although in the first three sessions the American Leaguers outplayed their opponents.

An immense crowd—29,265 paid admissions, a new record for attendance in a world's series game—witnessed the exciting battle.

Manager Fred Clarke and Tommy Leach were the stars of the Pittsburgh aggregation. It was Clarke who broke the apparently impenetrable wall of Mullin's wonderful pitching with a smashing home run into the right field bleachers in the fourth inning and tied the score. This smash appeared to take all the heart out of the Detroit team, and scoring was comparatively easy for Pittsburg after that.

Leach Saves Game For Pittsburg.

Leach's sensational catch of a terrific drive from Ty Cobb's trusty bat, with two Detroit men on bases in the seventh inning, saved the game. Leach was playing deep for Cobb, but this drive went almost to the centerfield stand, and it was only after a hard backward run the diminutive star was able to make the thrilling catch.

Both George Mullin and Charles Adams pitched admirably, and Mullin allowed only five hits, while the Pittsburg youngster was hit safely six times. Adams was unsteady in the opening round when he gave two bases on balls and allowed two hits. After that he steadied, and Detroit was not able to get more than one hit in an inning.

Great Interest in Cobb and Wagner.

The presence of the leading batter of each league—Cobb and Wagner—created great interest, and the work of both men was closely watched, as many bets have been made as to which will hit better during the series. Wagner had the better of the hitting for the game, as he made a two-bagger and was hit in four times up, giving him an average of .333. Cobb failed to make a hit, as Leach robbed him of what was almost a certain three-bagger. Cobb was up four times and drew a base on balls and scored Detroit's only run.

The total receipts of the game were $40,271.50, which will be divided as follows: To the National commission, $40,271.50; to the players, $21,740.61; to each club owner, $7,245.87. The score:

BIG TREES IMPRESS TAFT

The President Photographed at Base of Oldest Tree in the World. Glacier Point, Cal., Oct. 9.—President Taft arrived here from Wawona, where he visited the Mariposa big tree grove. The president was deeply impressed with the immense trees and especially in the upper groves.

He was photographed at the base of the "Grizzly Giant," the biggest and oldest tree in the world, and he was snapped in the stage as it passed through the trunk of the Wawona, one of the largest of the forest monarchs.

The president was continually on foot in the grove and stood for minutes at a time in contemplation of the forest giants.

The stage ride from Wawona to Glacier carried the president to an elevation of 7700 feet.

KILLED BY SMELLING SALTS

Woman Suffocated by Ammonia While Asleep.

South Norwalk, Conn., Oct. 9.—While in bed at her home, Mrs. Joseph O'Brien met a tragic death from suffocation, caused by the fumes of a bottle containing smelling salts. Mrs. O'Brien had been complaining of headache, and she went to sleep with a bottle of smelling salts at her nose.

The ammonia from the bottle was spilled and ran over her face and nose, the fumes producing death while she slept.

ARRESTED WHILE EMBRACING DEAD WIFE

Husband Accused of Killing Her in Jealous Rage.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—Charged with murdering his wife in a fit of jealous rage, William Fisher, aged fifty years, was arrested here. He was embracing the body of the dead woman when he was taken into custody in the room they had occupied. Fisher, who was a painter by trade, speaks nothing but German and refuses to make any statement.

According to other occupants of the house, he had frequent quarrels with his wife, who was about fifteen years his junior and of whom he was insanely jealous. A shot was heard and he appeared at a neighbor's room and is alleged to have said: "Fix this thing for me. I have killed my wife and now I want to kill myself." The hammer of the revolver had failed to work after the first shot. The startled neighbor, under pretense of getting a tool to fix the revolver, went out and informed the police.

HEARST WILL RUN

Accepts Nomination For Mayor of New York Under Certain Conditions.

New York, Oct. 9.—After two days of silence, William Randolph Hearst announced to a crowd of waiting constituents that he would accept an independent nomination for mayor of New York, provided that his associates upon the city and county tickets be substantially Republican-Fusion nominees as already selected. His statement, outlining the conditions upon which he will accept, is in part as follows:

"Whether I am a candidate or not, I will support the rest of the Fusion ticket nominated in opposition to Tammany Hall. When the Independence League committee withdrew from the Fusion conference it declared that it still stood ready to support a frank and honest expression of progressive principles and candidates irrespective of party. This is your opportunity to substantiate that declaration. Nominate me if you so desire, with the greater part of that Fusion ticket behind me, and I will run."

"The candidates nominated on the Fusion ticket are worthy of support. The ticket is already in the field. If we nominate another ticket, both tickets may be defeated. If we nominate the Fusion ticket, Tammany will be defeated. And if Tammany is defeated, the citizens will win."

He wishes the endorsement of the independents to enable him to head a ticket simply by displacing Otto T. Bannard, who has been nominated by the regular Republican party and endorsed by the so-called Fusionists.

An "Incubator" For Baby Industries. Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 9.—Harrisburg business men subscribed $26,000 for the erection of an "infant industry incubator," a building for use in attracting new industries to Harrisburg, at the first meeting of the committee of fifty, appointed as the outcome of a mass meeting held last week to devise ways and means of procuring additional factories for Harrisburg.

Died in Mine of Heart Failure. Mahanoy City, Pa., Oct. 9.—Missed from his boarding place since last Wednesday, Joseph Bondy, aged thirty years, a miner at the New Boston colliery, was found dead in the gangway 1000 feet under ground by miners going to work. Death was due to heart failure.

Girl Frightened by Rat Has Bad Fall. Evansville, Ind., Oct. 9.—A large rat ran under the feet of Grace Field, aged fifteen years, at her home. The frightened girl sprang for a chair and fell from it. Her arm was broken and she was seriously injured internally.

Wire Hairpins. The wire hairpin was first made in 1045 in England. Prior to that wooden skewers were used.

In Extenuation. A little girl between four and five years of age came running in from sliding one day and exclaimed to her mother: "Oh, mamma, did you see me go down? I went like thunder!"

To her mother's astonished question as to whom she had heard say that, the little one replied, "Well, mamma, you know you said one day 'as quick as lightning,' and it always thunders after it lightens, doesn't it?"

PULLING TOOTH KILLS A BOY

Owing to Blood Disease Flow Couldn't be Stayed For Days.

VICTIM WAS WEAKENED

Lack of Red Corpuscles Lessened Coagulating Quality and Ordinary Methods to Stop Flow of Blood Was Not Successful.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—His death hastened by the pulling of a tooth, ten-year-old Daniel Rogovsky, of Pineville, N. J., a victim of leukemia, the white blood disease, died in the University hospital. Physicians who attended him say that but for the drawing of his tooth he would still be alive.

It was more than three weeks ago when the boy, a son of Philip Rogovsky, who lives in Pineville, three miles from Millville, complained of a toothache. At that time his parents had no idea that he was suffering from leukemia.

The dentist who extracted the tooth was likewise ignorant of his condition. A profuse flow of blood followed the operation, and all efforts to stop it failed. For three days the cavity continued to bleed, the boy growing steadily weaker. Then it was decided to send him to the University hospital.

A diagnosis of his case showed at once that he was suffering from the white blood disease, technically known as leukemia. The blood of persons suffering from this disease lacks coagulating quality. It contains an excess of white corpuscles and a corresponding paucity of red corpuscles.

Any wound, no matter how slight, that causes bleeding is likely to result in death, as ordinary methods of stopping the flow of blood are not efficacious. When young Rogovsky reached the hospital he was in a greatly weakened condition from loss of blood. The cavity caused by the removal of the tooth was plugged and the flow stopped in this way.

But the damage had already been done. The boy failed to rally from the shock and grew steadily weaker day by day. Treatment for the disease itself seemed to have but little effect, and the boy finally passed into a stupor, from which he failed to rally.

The fire broke out while the occupants of the house were sleeping.

Mrs. Fairchild was alone in the house, and knowing the fire would do great damage, she strove to check it. The flames swept around her, however, and when she tried to escape it was necessary for her to run through the fire. Her clothing caught and she was fairly roasted alive.

LITTLE BABY HORRIBLY BURNED

By Boiling Grease—Skin All Came off One Side of Face and Head—Tried an Ointment which Made It All Fester—Wee Sufferer Seemed Disfigured for Life.

CURED WITHOUT A MARK BY CUTICURA

"About a year and eight months ago my baby, aged ten months, was sitting on the mat beside the fender and we were preparing the breakfast when the frying-pan full of boiling grease was upset and it went all over one side of the baby's face and head. One of the family ran and wiped the grease with a towel and you may think what a mess she made, pulling the entire skin off. We took her to a chemist who told us to get a doctor, which we did. He tapped her a week and gave me some stuff like lard to put on. But it all festered and I thought the baby was disfigured for life. A woman who had used Cuticura since Cuticura Ointment. I used about three boxes and it was wonderful how it healed. In about five weeks it was better and there wasn't a mark to tell where the grease had been. People used to ask me if that was the baby that was scalded and they would hardly believe me when I told them she was and what cured her face. Her skin is just like velvet and I have never been without Cuticura since. Cuticura cured three other children of ringworm besides, so I have good cause to thank it for what it has done. GRAY HAIRS BANISHED

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark glossy hair at the age of seventy-five while our mothers have white hair before they are fifty. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy and gradually restored the natural color. One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days on account of its souring quickly. This objection has been overcome, and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow. It is sold by all druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price. For sale and recommended by People's Drug Store.

SELECTING STOCK FOR RESULTS

A writer of much experience says: In choosing steers for fattening one of the most important things is to select those that give indications of making good gains. The steers must have a good, large frame, with capacity for consuming a good quantity of feed. This capacity must not be such as to tend too much toward paunchiness. The large framework gives a foundation on which to build. While the compact pony built animals are ready for market earlier and look better with a small amount of flesh on them, yet the gains made by steers of this form are usually much less than those made by more rangy animals. It is necessary, however, to strike a mean between the two—that is, avoid the extreme rangy type and also the more compact pony type—if the greatest gains are to be made and the steers fitted for market within a reasonable time.

While the brisket is one of the least valuable parts of the animal, so far as the carcass is concerned, yet a wide breast and a low, rather prominent brisket are indications of strength and vigor of constitution. These, together with a large heart girth, indicate good lung capacity and ability to assimilate food to advantage. Steers which are narrow just back of the shoulders should be avoided as lacking in lung capacity and constitution. In fattening for the larger markets, particularly, the proportion of higher priced meats should be taken into consideration—that is, select steers which will turn out the largest percentage of high priced cuts.

When fattening for local markets, especially for many in the east with a foreign trade, this is not so important, as the discrimination between the high and low priced cuts is less sharp.

In large markets with discriminating trade the hind quarters and back are decidedly the more valuable parts of the animal.

The kind of market, then, to which the steers are to be sold should be considered in selecting them. Beef from the show animals at the international would find slow sale in most of our local eastern markets. This shows that the eastern feeder has this advantage over the western feeder—that his markets are not so discriminating and a poorer class of animals may be sold and even sold to better advantage than would be possible in the large packing centers.

While the type of steer, so far as carcass is concerned, is less important in the east than in the west, it does not follow that the dairy bred steer is as satisfactory as the beef animal. It is true, however, that steers from good, large cows of the dairy type which are inclined to be fleshy and bulls of a blocky beef type can be used to advantage.

Dairies of Holland.

The dairies of Holland support on an average one cow to the acre, which makes such a piece of land worth from $600 to $2,000. Here in the alfalfa country many thousands of acres can support two cows to the acre, and in numbers of instances cattle are kept in this way without the fertilizing, cultivating, sowing and other means the plodding Holland farmer must adopt to obtain the results he desires. Instead just straight alfalfa growing does the work here. All a man need do is see that he has a good stand, that it is not abused, give it water, and it goes on producing for years.

Milk Cement Paint.

Skim milk paint has recently been going the rounds of the agricultural press, says the American Cultivator. Skim milk will make a fairly good paint or wash, but whole milk paint is much better, since the grease in the milk is what sets the paint. Mix a couple of pounds of standard portland cement in a gallon of milk—sweet or sour—and add colored paint powder to suit. The cement is heavy and will constantly sink, so keep stirring with every brushful, since it is the cement which makes the paint a preservative.

Sudden Change in Diet.

Sudden change in the diet of any animal is bad, especially the horse. The soft bran mash, by many advocated as a good Saturday night offering, is apt to cause colic unless the horse has been accustomed to bran during the week. Similar sudden use of green grass, roots, boiled grain or grain other than those mentioned is apt to cause indigestion of a serious nature, and, taking all things into consideration, the horse will do better on a steady ration at fixed intervals and in such a way as to allow sufficient time for proper mastication.

A Big Status.

The Gospel Oak.

In the village of Holstead, Suffolk, England, stands a famous oak which the rector has proved to be 2,000 years old. The tree has a girth of thirty feet and has been known always as the gospel oak, since under it the first Christian missionaries preached to the heathen Saxons thirteen centuries ago. This event is commemorated each year by a special service held under the tree.

NEW LAW FOR CORPORATIONS

Taft Will Urge Act to Authorize Federal Incorporation.

BILL IS BEING PREPARED

The Industrial Commission Says It Will Provide Regulation and Publicity—Attorney General Thinks Corporations Would Benefit.

Washington, Oct. 9.—It is now clearly indicated that one of the most important bills to be considered at the coming session of congress will be the administration bill providing for a federal incorporation law. It will probably be the most important legislation attempted.

This bill is now being prepared by Attorney General Wickersham, although he has not worked it out in detail as yet. He expects to have it in shape to submit to President Taft and his cabinet immediately upon the reconvening of that body in November, after the president's return. The attorney general has devoted the greater part of the summer to studying out this problem and getting the proposed legislation into shape.

It is understood that this bill will be based upon the recommendations of the industrial commission of 1900, of which former Representative Phillips, of Pennsylvania, was chairman. The question of a federal incorporation law was thoroughly gone into by that commission, and the opinions of such experts as the late E. W. Huffcut, of Cornell university, and F. J. Stimson, a lawyer of Boston, had great weight in formulating its recommendations. Their views are accepted as embodying practical ideas which, it is believed, will be adopted in the framing of the administration bill.

Taxation the Foundation. In its recommendation, the industrial commission had this to say, after discussing various remedies, evils and injustices complained of in the operation of corporations doing interstate business:

"If experience should prove that these remedies are not sufficient properly to control the great corporations and combinations, it may be wise for the congress to enact a federal incorporation law. Should such a law be enacted it would then be possible to increase the franchise tax on state corporations engaged in interstate commerce so as to compel them to reorganize under a federal law. When organized under a federal law it would be possible, as has been pointed out, to apply to corporations any degree of publicity or restriction that might be authorized."

That recommendation is the foundation upon which the proposed legislation is to be built. The bill is expected to embrace President Taft's ideas regarding the supervision of stock issues by the federal government. The suggestion by the commission that such a franchise tax can be placed upon corporations doing interstate business as to compel them to take out federal franchises will be incorporated in the bill so that all corporations thus engaged will be glad to come in under federal supervision.

The attorney general, in speaking of the advisability of such a federal incorporation law, said in his opinion corporations would gladly avail themselves of the chance to do business under federal supervision. "They would prefer one master to forty-six masters," is the way he put it. There will be provision in the bill for the publicity of corporate affairs so long demanded.

SEVENTEEN DEAD IN WRECK

The work train was backing into the city and hit an outward bound oil train on curve. The wreckage was piled on the track and many of the dead and injured were under the debris. The work train had disregarded orders.

A Matter of Pronunciation.

A conductor and a brakeman on a Montana railroad differ as to the proper pronunciation of the name Eureka. Passengers are often startled upon arrival at this station to hear the conductor yell:

"You're a liar! You're a liar!" And then from the brakeman at the other end of the car:

"You really are! You really are!"—Everybody's Magazine.

SHOT DEAD ON STREET

Victim of Man Whose Daughter Claimed Attempt at Assault Was Made.

Paterson, N. J., Oct. 9.—Samuel Rogers shot and killed Patrick Congdon on Main street, South Paterson, in the presence of scores of pedestrians. Rogers had retired for the night, when he was aroused by his wife, who told him that a man had attempted to assault their thirteen-year-old daughter. In company with his daughter and armed with a whip, Rogers started out in search of the assailant.

The little girl pointed out Congdon, and as Rogers approached the former pulled a revolver. Rogers grappled with Congdon and, securing possession of the revolver, fired at Congdon. Two bullets took effect and Congdon fell, fatally wounded. He was dead when the ambulance surgeon arrived.

HIS BATH ROBE IN FLAMES

Chaplain of Newark, N. J., Jail May Be Fatally Burned.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 9.—Rev. Augustine M. Brady, chaplain of the Newark jail and the Home for the Aged, and in former years one of the leading Paulist missionaries of the country, was so badly burned at his home that it is feared he will not survive. He was passing from the bathroom when a light muffler about his throat was ignited by a candle he carried. The flames spread to his bathrobe, and before help reached him he was terribly burned.

WRIGHT TEACHING ARMY TO FLY

Government Aeroplane Makes Five Flights.

College Park, Md., Oct. 9.—For the first time in American history an aeroplane owned by the United States government rose in the air here, circled over the farms that nestle in the valley and sailed back to its starting point. Under the guiding hand of one of its inventors, Wilbur Wright, the machine flew five times in the dedication of the government's tract of land to aviation.

Mr. Wright began the flights to teach the officers of the signal corps how to handle the new machine of war he had made for them. After three flights alone Mr. Wright invited Lieutenant Lahm to take his place in the extra seat. They went a mile and a half toward Washington in hardly more than as many minutes. As they sailed over the last remaining acres owned by the Calvert family they could have dropped a bomb in the old mansion that Lord Baltimore built more than two centuries ago. In five minutes after they had left the aviators landed within twenty feet of the starting rail.

Then Mr. Wright beckoned to Lieutenant Humphreys to take his place for his first ride in an aeroplane. In five minutes they had finished their circles of the field and were bringing the machine to a halt alongside the starting rail. "It's much more pleasant than automobiling," remarked Lieutenant Humphreys. "We had a splendid view of the country."

TOO MUCH SMOKE

Wife's Cigarettes Cause Husband to Seek Divorce.

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 9.—George Klier sued Minnie Klier for divorce, alleging that she is an inveterate smoker of cigarettes and that she awakens him each morning by puffing cigarette fumes in his face.

Dug Out Alive From Under Cave-In.

Pottsville, Pa., Oct. 9.—Thomas Castro, digging for the foundations of a new building, was buried by an avalanche of earth. He was completely covered for nearly an hour. A rescue force worked heroically and brought him out gasping, but still alive. He recovered.

Earthquake in Georgia.

Dalton, Ga., Oct. 9.—Two distinct earthquake shocks were felt here, accompanied by a booming sound. Houses were shaken throughout the town, but no damage is reported.

The historic river Jordan has its origin in one of the largest springs in the world.

Grease and Gravy.

"It is always a task," says one woman, "to take off the grease when one is making gravy in a hurry. It may be done almost instantly by going over the top of the pan with a bit of ice. The grease adheres to the ice and hardens at once. This applies to soup stock or any hot liquid from which one wishes to separate the grease without waiting for it to get cold."

True Comfort in Wooltex Soft Tailoring

The famous "soft tailoring" of which the French dressmakers boast is found in all Wooltex coats.

Roll one up, then shake it out and you will see no creases. That's because the inside—the part you must take on faith—is properly made, of the right materials.

Wooltex revers cannot roll up. The collar hugs the neck and lies flat and close, and is faced with melton like a man's collar, so it cannot lose its shape by turning up.

Throughout two seasons of steady service your Wooltex coat will keep its shape and the lining will not wear out. Or if it should, you will get a new one, without question, without charge.

ONLY ONE

The Record in Gettysburg Is a Unique One.

If the reader has a "bad back" or any kidney ill and is looking for relief and cure, better depend on the only remedy endorsed by people you know. Doan's Kidney Pills relieve quickly—cure permanently. Gettysburg citizens testify to this. Here is a case of it:

Mrs. Elizabeth Beites, 1 Steinwehr Ave., Gettysburg, Pa., says: "I suffered from kidney and bladder trouble for some time and used a great many remedies but did not succeed in finding relief. The kidney secretions were very irregular in passage, causing me much annoyance and severe pains often darted through my body. My health was in a run down condition when I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and I decided to try them. I procured a box at the People's drug store and they gave me prompt relief. I do not hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone suffering from kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

PROPER SCRATCH MATERIAL.

Chicken cranks, great and small, should have scratching material laid back in a dry place for those days when snow and cold keep Biddy indoors and she must scratch to keep warm and manufacture eggs.

Leaves and buckwheat straw soon go to nothing; coarse shavings, excelsior or sawdust is swallowed by the hungry hens, and it kills them; hay is too expensive, is eaten and brings hard crop; rye straw is too coarse and is costly; cut corn fodder and corn-cobs are too rough and do not hide the grain, while deep dirt and coal ashes are a nuisance to hen and men.

Wheat and oat straw are best. We prefer wheat straw for litter, as it lasts longer, is cleaner, and the hens eat it for certain mineral elements it contains that are needed for health and eggs. To keep hens from scratching straw into drinking vessels place whole corn fodder right around them.

If you use dried weeds for litter your experience will be bitter. Wherever you that litter throw weed seeds will quickly sprout and grow, and you will have to sweat and hoe.

Goats have lately been used in the Lassen national forest in California for the purpose of denuding strips of land of vegetation to make fire lines. Not only do the goats eat vegetation of almost every description, but they have been known to tear bark loose from good sized trees and strip it up a dozen or more feet.

Good Roads Would Help Everybody.

The good roads movement is an economic movement, a thing that somewhere and at some time touches the "pocket nerve" of every producer and every consumer in the land, a factor as indispensable as navigable inland waterways to the fundamental settlement of all freight rate questions. A real and stable macadam highway between Denver, Kansas City and Chicago, for instance, would be of more benefit to the economic development of Colorado than forty successful appeals to the Interstate commerce commission.

Venezuela has 200,000 acres devoted to the raising of coffee. The number of plantations is 33,000 and the annual product about 50,000 tons. Argentina, the great wheat granary of South America, exported 88,672,000 bushels of wheat from Jan. 1 to Aug. 1. This is about 32,000,000 more bushels than for the corresponding period last year.

OIL MADE EARTH ROADS.

New Product Which Will Keep Dirt Highways Hard and Smooth.

Now it is possible to make smooth boulevards out of rough country roads at a comparatively small cost. Protracted rainy weather may prevail or regular "gully washers" may come, but the roads treated by the new process will keep hard and smooth even though mud is knee deep in the ditches and in the fields. A prominent oil company asserts it has solved the problem. The general manager of the fuel oil department of that company in New York city states that for several years his company has been making tests to perfect an oil which would serve the same purpose on the earth roads in the country and small towns as the asphalt road oil does on the macadamized boulevards. In April the company placed on the market the standard macadamized asphalt binder oil for earth roads. Tests have been made in different parts of the United States, and the general manager says it has been thoroughly demonstrated to be a complete success. To show his confidence in the oil, arrangements have been completed to build a small section of road at Independence, Mo.

The process of making good roads with this new brand of road oil is very simple. First the road must be plowed thoroughly and then run over several times with a harrow, after which it should be rounded with a grader and dragged to make it hard. After this it is ready for the road oil.

"The cost of this process is far less than the rock or macadamized roads, of course," said the manager. "It will cost from $500 to $900 a mile to thoroughly oil an earth road the first time. The cost after that is far less each year to keep it oiled."

"It is expected that this new process will revolutionize road building. We receive thousands of letters from all parts of the country asking for complete details. The demand has been so strong it has been necessary to have printed matter prepared on the subject. The good roads movement is spreading rapidly. It is one of the most striking evidences of continued and substantial prosperity. Good roads enhance the value of property and the pleasure of living in the community."

CONCRETE BLOCKS FOR ROADS

Only the Wheel Track Is Paved, Reducing Cost of Construction.

Orlando H. H. Dickson of Jacksonville, Fla., one of the most active champions of good roads in Duval county for many years, has received word from his attorney at Washington that a patent has been allowed on his concrete block for constructing roads. The authorities at the patent office at first refused him a patent because the method was, they thought, in conflict with other similar roads that had been patented, but Mr. Dickson employed a first class attorney, who fought the matter through to a successful issue.

The road as patented consists of heavy concrete blocks in shape not unlike common T rails laid on their sides, except that they are much larger and only three or four feet in length. They have a mortise on one end and a tenon on the reverse end and so are locked together, making them a continuous road, but easily repaired if broken, as one block can be taken out and another one inserted in a few moments' time. The groove is large enough to easily carry an automobile tire, and such a road can be built with a double track at less cost than ordinary first class country roads cost. Mr. Dickson is in correspondence with several manufacturers of machinery for concrete work, who assure him that a machine can be constructed to turn out several hundred blocks in a day at small cost for labor. A short piece of the road is now in use between Jacksonville and Apoka and has been tested enough to prove its complete adaptability as a first class road for farm vehicles or automobiles.

Any person who does the common work of life which falls to his lot faithfully and well deserves credit as a benefactor of his fellow men just as truly as do those who labor higher up. It is not so much the kind of work as the way in which it is done that makes it worth while.

CONTINUES TO WORK WONDERS IN GETTYSBURG

But Next Week will be the Last of Demonstration

It is absurd to doubt the great merits of Root Juice as proofs of its wonderful health-promoting merits can be found in scores of homes here in Gettysburg and vicinity. It has undoubtedly proved to be the world's greatest healing tonic to the stomach, bowels, bladder, liver and kidneys. No weak, sickly man or woman can afford to wait another day without getting some of the great medicine, as a few doses usually create marked improvement and from the experience of many local people the soothing, healing and strengthening action of the remedy is so rapid that it is absolutely wonderful. Dozens of people have so reported at People's drug store within the last few days. We are informed that the demonstrations will positively close at this point next Saturday night and until the close of the demonstrations the Juice will be sold for one dollar a bottle or three bottles for two dollars and a half.

The temper and disposition of the cow are largely determined by the care she receives as a heifer. This is brought to mind by a fine little Jersey heifer we know of that was bothered by some thoughtless little girls. She has sharp horns and now makes for any girl of the same size who happens to come near her. A bad habit has been formed, and the horns will have to come off.

Argentina exports more beef to the United Kingdom than does the United States, and no small part of her ability to do this lies in the 9,000,000 acres of alfalfa which at present furnish much of the forage for her beef cattle. It takes from one to two acres of the legume to carry a mature steer through the year. The best steers raised are sold for export and fetch the grower about $50 per head.

What is a Limerick?

A Limerick is a jingle, a short piece of poetry generally consisting of five lines, the last rhyming with the first two. Here is a sample Limerick completed:

Her Sweetheart at Christmas did bring
A necklace, a brooch and a ring;
In return at New Year
Miss Molly said, "Here
Is your chancetowin back everything."

The Reason For It

The giving away of this large amount in prizes is made possible only through the assistance and co-operation of the large and wealthy factories we have so long represented in this section. The advertising received for our store and pianos repays us in a great measure for the large expenditure in prizes, and the people are directly benefitted. Our last contest was so very satisfactory our friends have asked us to have this one.
